

Beat: Politics

REFUSING TO SAY THE WORDS CLIMATE CHANGE DOES NOT MEAN THAT IT IS NOT HAPPENING

SAID OBAMA AT EVERGLADES PARK

Paris, Washington DC, 23.04.2015, 17:57 Time

USPA NEWS - "Climate change can no longer be denied. It can't be edited out. It can't be omitted from the conversation. And action can no longer be delayed" said President Obama celebrating "Earth Day" at Everglades National Park. "Protecting the one planet we've got is what we have to do for the next generation"

OBAMA DELIVERS HIS REMARKS FROM EVERGLADE PARK AS DID THE PREVIOUS PRESIDENTS OF USA

While everybody is celebrating Earth Day, President Obama paid a visit to Everglades National Park, Florida. It is an appointment must for presidents of the United States of America precedents, particularly marked this year of global warming. Visiting Everglades National Park in Florida is important but also an opportunity for the President to meet and discuss with groups of students, symbol of the new generations. He also delivered some important remarks about how small actions can add up to big environmental change. President Obama gave had a talk with groups of students from the Everglades, Florida, yesterday.-----

Today, more than 80 percent of American families live in urban areas, and many don't have access to safe outdoor spaces. This past February, the Obama Administration launched a new initiative to provide all 4th grade students and their families free admission to all National Parks and other federal lands and waters for a full year -- starting with the 2015-2016 school year.

Earlier this week, Senior Advisor Brian Deese wrote Americans around the country, encouraging them to help make the importance of fighting the effects of climate change personal and local for their friends and followers by sharing a photo of the park or natural space they're fighting to protect.

OBAMA'S ADMINISTRATION HAS MADE CLIMATE CHANGE A PRIORITY FOR ACTION NOW-----

On this special occasion of Earth Day celebration, President Obama said : "Climate change is real, and so are the President's actions to fight it." in the line of US presidents who preceded him. In fact the President is right, as the science is clear.

"Protecting the one planet we've got is what we have to do for the next generation." when visiting Everglades National Park.

In Beijing last November, President Obama and Chinese leader Xi Jinping each announced bold new climate change targets. This was the first time the leaders of the two leading-emitters of greenhouse gases came together to address the issue in a constructive and far-sighted way.

For more information see : www.whitehouse.gov, go.wh.gov/EarthDay "ActOnClimate", <http://ofa.bo/e4Ph>, <http://go.wh.gov/S984Qb>

Article online:

<https://www.uspa24.com/bericht-3903/refusing-to-say-the-words-climate-change-does-not-mean-that-it-is-not-happening.html>

Editorial office and responsibility:

V.i.S.d.P. & Sect. 6 MDStV (German Interstate Media Services Agreement): Rahma Sophia RACHDI

Exemption from liability:

The publisher shall assume no liability for the accuracy or completeness of the published report and is merely providing space for the submission of and access to third-party content. Liability for the content of a report lies solely with the author of such report. Rahma Sophia RACHDI

Editorial program service of General News Agency:

United Press Association, Inc.
3651 Lindell Road, Suite D168
Las Vegas, NV 89103, USA
(702) 943.0321 Local
(702) 943.0233 Facsimile
info@unitedpressassociation.org
info@gna24.com
www.gna24.com